

ABCD: Good morning Principal, Vice Principals, teachers and fellow schoolmates

A: Today we would like to talk about the elements of DRAMA.

B: First, what is a drama?

C: A drama is a story to be acted out on stage in front of an audience.

D: The first element of drama is the cast of characters, that is the actors in a drama.

A: I see, that is “WHO”.

B: Then we have the setting which tells you WHEN and WHERE the story takes place, giving you a time and location.

C: That’s “WHEN” and “WHERE”.

D: Then we have the dialogue, which is the conversation between the characters.

A: Next, we have stage directions which tell the actors WHAT to do on stage.

B: I see, that is “WHAT”.

C: And we also have comedies and tragedies telling us WHY the story happens.

D: Ah, that’s “WHY”.

ABCD: Yes, so we have WHO, WHAT, WHEN, WHERE and WHY.

Who? What? When? Where? Why? Why?

Who? What? When? Where? Why? Why?

Who did it? What did he do? Where did he do it? Why?

Who did it? What did he do? Where did he do it? Why?

Who did it? What did he do? Who did it? What did he do? Who did it? What did he do?

Where did he do it? Why?

Who? What? When? Where? Why? Why?

Who? What? When? Where? Why? Why?

Who did it? What did he do? Where did he do it? Why?

Who did it? What did he do? Where did he do it? Why?

Who did it? What did he do? Who did it? What did he do? Who did it? What did he do?

Where did he do it? Why?

ABCD: That is DRAMA and that’s all we want to share today. Thank you for your attention.
