- A: Good morning YY2, welcome to the THS morning talk. I'm Issac from 4X.
- B: I am Jack, also from 4X.
- A/B: We are here to bring you the latest tourism news of HK.
- A: Jack, let me ask you a question first. How many pandas are there in HK right now?
- B: There are six in Ocean Park. By the way, have you heard of Panda Economy?
- A: Em.....
- B: Let me tell you "Panda Economy" is the development of an industrial chain related to pandas. It is not only reflected in the cultural and creative products created with pandas, but also assists the construction of tourism industry chains and the promotion of tourist attractions.
- A: It seems quite interesting. That means we can produce panda toys and also develop more attractions related to panda.
- B: Yes, you are right.
- A: Since you have mentioned Ocean Park, do you know there will be a new zone called Adventure Zone in Ocean Park?
- B: Of course! It will attract more tourists to visit Hong Kong Ocean Park, as the new zone will be a good promotion of Ocean Park.
